

Disclaimer

Abroad education offices play a crucial role in assisting students with their dreams of studying overseas. To ensure transparency, manage expectations, and maintain ethical standards, it is vital to have clear and comprehensive disclaimers.

- CBT Education provides independent education consultancy services and is not affiliated with any government, immigration department, or official agency.
- We assist students with university selection and application preparation and provide guidance for visa applications.
- Emphasise that all visa decisions are made solely by the relevant government authorities and that the office does not guarantee visa issuance.
- State that the information provided is based on the best available knowledge and efforts to ensure accuracy and timeliness.
- The office will not be held liable for any loss or damage incurred as a result of using their services or relying on the information provided.
- The office is not responsible for services provided by third-party vendors (e.g., courier services, insurance providers), including delays, damage, or loss of documents in transit.
- All content, logos, and materials on their website are the property of the abroad education office unless otherwise stated, and unauthorised use is prohibited.
- It is the student's responsibility to understand and comply with all visa requirements and conditions of stay in the destination country.
- The office is not responsible for the costs associated with tuition, accommodation, living expenses, or other expenses related to studying abroad, and these costs can fluctuate based on the chosen destination, institution, and individual spending habits

- The office is not responsible for the potential impact of exchange rate fluctuations on the overall cost of education and living expenses abroad.
 - The office is not liable for any delay in processing or refusal of a visa application by the relevant embassy/high commission/consulate general.
 - The office service duration is valid for one year from the date of registration.
 - The validity of the amount paid as a service charge will be for two years.
 - Students need to bear the cost of university application, APS, VPD, courier services, visa service, etc. (The amount collected is solo for the service provided by the office.)
 - The office doesn't guarantee the admission of the student to a particular university since it's solely the university's decision.
 - The office doesn't take the responsibilities of the third-party use as referenced by the student.
 - The office is not responsible for the acts they conduct after reaching the abroad university.
 - The office is not responsible for the visa violation done by the student while they are abroad.
 - The collaboration of the education institute and the agency should be confidential and not to be shared or discussed by the student.
 - The office is not liable for any direct or indirect loss or damage arising from the use of the websites or any reference provided by the company.
 - The office is not liable for any losses resulting from client violation of terms & conditions.
 - The content of the logos, materials, and websites is for marketing and information, is not subject to change by university rules, and is protected by copyright laws.
 - Clients are responsible for independently verifying all information and making their own decision.
 - The office doesn't carry any refund policy. In an irrefutable situation, paid in full, 50% of the total charged service amount will be refunded if claimed within 5 business days.
-

- The office is not responsible for the cultural adjustments and potential challenges related to language barriers and lifestyle changes while they are abroad.
- The information provided by the office is based on the best available knowledge and efforts to ensure accuracy and timeliness.
- The office doesn't bear the guarantee as to the accuracy or currency of every piece of information, as regulations and university offerings can change.
- The office will not be held liable for any loss or damage incurred as a result of using their services or relying on the information provided.
- The office has the right to update, amend, cancel, or withdraw any or all of the disclaimer points without prior notice.
- The office is not responsible for the outcome of false documents or false identity for the purpose of misleading Cloudbigtechnology.com or others.
- You may not avail yourself of the services of cloudbigtechnology.com if you fail to provide the information, documents, and certificate when you are seeking services.
- Our office is not responsible for third-party training output provided to students.
- Failure to pay the balance amount in the mentioned timeline can result in denial of service.

Note: I have read the terms and conditions, and I Hereby accept and agree to the terms and conditions as stated above

Witness

Name:

Name:

Date:

Date:

Sign:

Sign: